

State of South Carolina

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, each day, public employees at the federal, state, and local levels work in countless ways on behalf of all Americans to keep our nation working; and

WHEREAS, from firefighters to legislators, crossing guards to astronauts, all those who have chosen careers in public service perform a wide variety of government duties with efficiency and integrity; and

WHEREAS, public employees in South Carolina uphold high standards of servant leadership through their dedication to improving the lives of our residents; and

WHEREAS, the 2007 observance of Public Service Recognition Week calls attention to the contributions of federal, state, county, and municipal employees to our quality of life.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mark Sanford, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim May 7 - 13, 2007, as

PUBLIC SERVICE RECOGNITION WEEK

throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to honor public employees in the Palmetto State for their hard work and dedication to the continued health, safety, and well-being of our residents.
